

LITHUANIA	ITALY	PORTUGAL	GERMANY	POLAND
-----------	-------	----------	---------	--------

Sources used

Social protection programmes for trafficking victims run by seven organisations in Lithuania	Article 18 projects for information on trafficked persons; police data	Victims' accounts	Social protection programmes and law enforcement sources (investigations and co-operation with judicial sources)	Reports and NGO statistics, Police, National Prosecutor's Office, Ministry of the Interior
--	--	-------------------	--	--

How often is the data collected?

Annually	No specific period	Monthly	Daily (when needed), monthly, six-monthly and annually	Annually
----------	--------------------	---------	--	----------

System and tools used for data gathering

Organisations register information on a virtual database (electronic questionnaires). Each organisation has access only to its own data and can get an analysis of its data in a diagram format. Only IOM can operate the entire database	Article 18 projects (call for proposals); police database	Paper sheets, anamneses medical histories and life stories	Datasheets, questionnaires, reports and statistics of from police files, police information system and police complaints and interrogations	Collection of statistics and annual reports of different institutions (police, border guards, NGOs)
---	---	--	---	---

System and tools used for data processing analysis

Electronic database	For article 18 projects: none; for police forces: information database	None	Quantitative and qualitative methods, reports and statistics, Excel files and database
---------------------	--	------	--	--

Bodies processing/analysing the data

IOM Vilnius	Managing bodies	Ninho (NGO)	Regional/local authorities, state and NGOs	State and NGOs
-------------	-----------------	-------------	--	----------------

Is there a report issued to disseminate the results

Yes	No, except for some short summaries	No	Department for Trafficking and Smuggling – since 1999 some of the data (statistics) has been provided to the Federal Investigation Office, which publishes annual reports on trafficking	Yes
-----	-------------------------------------	----	--	-----

Since when

2005		---	1999	2005
------	--	-----	------	------